SAVE....SAVE....SAVE!

The West Coast Co-operative Credit Union Ltd offers a wide range of services, with very attractive interest rates, to its members including :

THINK BIGGER...

Savings Account

Member Savings Account

The WCCCU savings account unlocks the door to all the benefits of membership. You can become a member with a minimum of $90.00. With a savings account, members become eligible for dividends on their shares each year and members can gain access to the large variety of loans and other products and services offered by the society. A member holding such an account can use the money on this account as collateral for a loan.

Deposit Account

Deposit Account

Deposit accounts are available and can be used to manage your money used for incidentals like monthly bill payments and other expenses, or to save for a special purpose such as vehicle repairs, education, vacation, e.t.c....Opening a deposit account is quite easy and affordable. A member can have various deposit accounts running concurrent with each other or a savings account. A Deposit account can be opened with as little as $20.00
